Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of His Excellency Levi Lincoln: To Both Branches of the Legislature, Delivered June 2, 1825 The union which is now manifest, has resulted from a conviction, that the honest and patriotic of all parties have but a common interest, which is best to be promoted by a concentration of common efforts. A practical conformity to the opinions, which have been distinctly expressed by the public suffrage, is imperatively required in the official measures of those, who are but agents in the exercise of delegated authority. A recurrence to the source of this authority as contained in the Declaration of Rights, and the Frame of Government of this Commonwealth, with a proper regard to the powers which have been conceded to the General Government, in their legitimate exercise, will furnish the best general directory to a just and impartial administration, - and it cannot be distrusted, that an enlightened people will sanction with their approbation, an adherence to those fundamental principles which are the basis of the rules prescribed by themselves, for the conduct of their publick servants. With the contemplation of the duties which are now to devolve upon us, the present moment has associated recollections of peculiarly interesting and solemn impression.
