

Homesteading Guide for the Garden Homesteader: How to Become a Master at Homesteading (Paperback)

By William Ellis

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Homesteading Guide For The Garden Homesteader is a book that offers some quick tips for the individual who wants to learn the most effective way to get started with homestead gardening. The process does take some planning and a bit of implementation but once everything is set, it should be relatively easy to maintain from then on. Of course the larger the garden is, the more plantings there ll be to be put in -- but that is all dependent on the time the person has and the space available to work with. The author has gone to great lengths to ensure that the reader has a proper understanding of what homesteading is and the steps that they will have to follow to get it set-up. It really is a viable solution for the individual that is not only seeking healthier, fresher foods but is also seeking to save more money in the long run. It is a great addition to any household that has an interest in doing some gardening to provide food for the family....
