

The Gates Of Gormyre

By C. S. Griffin

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 364 pages. THE GATES OF GORMYRE Mason and Bianca Winslow appear to be a typical happily married couple, complete with a nine year old son, Caleb until the evening of a local Halloween Festival. During the festival, Mason and Bianca begin having flashbacks of lives in a parallel dimension, before Caleb was born. Mason is the son of a pirate captain, and Bianca is a gypsy. In this dimension pirates and gypsies are mortal enemies; thus their love is a forbidden one. A magic show is the grand finale of the Halloween Festival, and Caleb is chosen from the audience to vanish into thin air, which he does, magically transported to his parents native realm. This is a summons for Mason and Bianca to return as well, to settle an old score. Memory by memory they make their way back, determined to find Caleb and bring him home. What they find, when they first arrive, is a waiting crew of pirates, captained by Masons father, Algeron, fuming and demanding they Surrender The Black Spire. This is Calebs ransom, yet to them it is a mystery, a clever and deadly riddle they must somehow solve to save their son....
