Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Our Heritage, Old South Church: 1669-1919 The Services in recognition of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Old South Church were held on Friday evening May 2, 1919, Sunday morning and evening. May 4, and Sunday morning and evening. May 11. A part of Dr. Gordon s address at the service preparatory to Communion Friday evening. May 2, is included in this volume. It was in the nature of an intimate talk with the members of the church, but will have equal interest for the many past members who are likely to see this permanent record. The Memorial Communion Service was celebrated Sunday morning. May 4, preceding which Dr. Gordon preached, his subject being A Cloud of Witnesses. In the evening of the same day the choir of the church, augmented by a chorus of twenty voices, under the direction of the organist, Mr. Wry, rendered Mendelssohn s Hymn of Praise. The Associate Minister, Mr. Butler gave an appropriate address. Sunday morning. May 11, Dr. Gordon delivered a historical discourse covering the history of the church to the time of his installation. He has extended this discourse for purposes of publication so as to present in brief form and yet adequately the salient points in the history of the church.
