Dr. Tufts moved that the report be accepted and that the members proceed to ballot. The Secretary was ordered to cast one collective ballot for the above nominees, who were thereupon declared duly elected. Dr. Tufts was then requested to install the officers elect and did so in his usual pleasant manner. The question of where the next meeting should be held was next in order, and after some discussion it was voted on motion of W. P. Underhill to hold the next annual at the Isles of Shoals, September 5th and...
